

Daughter of the King. Worshipper. Wife. Sister. Aunt. Friend. Creative. Loyal. Victorious. Confident.
Lover of laughter and all things beautiful.

Born and Born again

Antoinette Necole Greene is the eldest of three children born to Elder Anthony and Sister Cherylyn Greene. A lifelong member of Bethesda Temple Apostolic Church in Dayton, OH, Antoinette was saved at the age of 13 under the pastorate of Suff. Bishop J. Thomas during a young people's revival where her godfather and current pastor, Dr. Craig High, was the guest speaker.

Ministry

In her local church, Antoinette has served in multiple capacities: Director of Selah Dance Ministry, Director of Camp Kids for Christ-serving hundreds of children in the Dayton area, Praise team and choir member, Youth & Young Adult ministry officer, Bulletin staff, VBS and Sunday School teacher, Talitha Cumi women's retreat staff, and numerous committees. Antoinette has always been fond of attending councils and conventions and became active at an early age, serving the teen staff of the IPYPU, under the leadership of Min. Todd Bell and later served the IPYPU teen administration of Pastor C. Shawn Tyson. She continued to serve her local assembly and the IPYPU teens throughout her high school and college years, maintaining an appropriate balance of academics, sports and extra-curricular activities. Since the early 2000s, Antoinette has served as Assistant Secretary of the Southwest Region Young People's Union and International Pentecostal Young People's Union (IPYPU), Secretary of the Ohio District Council Young People's Union and is currently the Secretary of the IPYPU.

Life, More Abundantly

Outside of ministry, Antoinette works as Program Director at the National Kidney Foundation-overseeing programs that impact kidney patients/families and those at risk for kidney disease. She enjoys, music, reading, decorating events, crafting, amusement parks, beaches, traveling, photography, logic puzzles and overall spending quality time with family and friends. Her favorite experiences are studying abroad in Israel, visiting Egypt, England and France and being crowned the 1st Black Homecoming Queen of Otterbein University in 2002. Antoinette is married to Eddie Tubbs and they currently reside in Pickerington, OH. Her favorite scripture is Isaiah 46:10, which assures her that God has already determined the path for her life, according to His pleasure!
