

Elder Reginald K. Williams

“The Custodian of the Apostolic Faith”

Elder Reginald K. Williams, is the grandson of the late Elder George Lee and Pastor Phyllis Lee founding pastors of Heavenly Vision Apostolic Church (Syracuse, NY). On April 4, 1993 he received the gift of the Holy Ghost with the initial physical evidence of speaking in tongues while in Sunday School. After receiving the gift of the Holy Ghost, on July 25, 1993 he was water baptized in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ according to Acts 2:38 under the pastorate of the late Elder George E. Lee. Elder Williams began preaching at the age of 11 after receiving faith impartations from his grandparents and continues to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ until this very day. He currently resides in Syracuse, NY where he is a member of the Heavenly Vision Apostolic Church Inc. under Pastorate of District Elder Phyllis C. Lee. Elder Williams serves as Assistant Pastor, an Altar Worker, Sunday School Teacher, Church Treasurer, and Intercessory

Prayer Warrior. He is the former treasurer for the New York State & Canada Pentecostal Young People’s Union. Internationally, he is a licensed minister with the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World, Inc., and he is also the treasurer for the International Pentecostal Young People’s Union of the P.A.W. Elder Williams also serves the New York State Council of the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World, Inc. as its current Young People’s President and Media Relations Department Director. He serves the Pentecostal Assemblies of the World, Inc. Media Relations Department as a team lead, and the Aenon Bible College as the Marketing and Media Director. A graduate of St. John Fisher College (Rochester, NY) he currently holds a B.S. degree in Accounting & Finance. Elder Williams is currently completing his theological studies at Aenon Bible College (Indianapolis, IN).

Elder Reginald K. Williams is well known as the Custodian of the Apostolic Faith for his great commitment of teaching and earnest contending for the Apostolic Faith, which was once delivered unto the saints (Jude 3).